one country—two images

Opening on Friday, 10 December from 6 to 10 pm.

The exhibition »one country—two images« presents ten divergent photographic and graphic positions from and about Hong Kong. Beside the journalistic and documentary photographic works the exhibition shows also perspectives of staged and art photography. Photographic works from and about Hong Kong are little known in Europe. This exhibition aims to highlight the independence and the visual and cultural peculiarities of the photographic positions from and about Hong Kong and will offer an appropriate environment. Flanked by quotations, which attempt to describe and support the cultural context and the special identity. In addition, the exhibition presents 29 unique photo- and artist-books from and about Hong Kong.
